Please note however, that HHR may have to re-allocate seat reservations at short notice for operational reasons which will be explained to the affected passengers avoiding separate families as much as possible.

4.8.3 BRINGING LUGGAGE ON OUR TRAINS

The conditions and possibilities available to the customer regarding baggage on board are explained in section 5.7.9.

4.8.4 TRAVELLING WITHOUT A TICKET

As our trains are fully subject to prior reservation, all of our passengers must buy a ticket before boarding the train. Customers without a valid ticket will not be permitted to pass through access gates. You must retain your ticket for your entire journey.

A valid ticket is defined as a ticket that is held by the correct passenger type (including any supporting documentation), train number, date and departure time, class of travel and origin and destination station combination. A valid ticket must also clearly display the correct passenger's name and ID number.

If you lose your pre-printed ticket or it is stolen, our helpful station staff will be happy to re-print your ticket for you at the ticket office before you board the train.

Passengers without a valid ticket must leave the train at the next station and pay a surcharge unless they buy a new ticket for the entire trip before to arrive to the next station.

4.9.1 WHAT HHR WILL DO TO GET YOU THROUGH DELAYS

- HHR will always try to keep you up to date about what is happening and give you advice about your journey.
- If the train is cancelled in-route, HHR will ensure get you to your final destination station via a replacement service or alternative transportation where necessary. If HHR can't get you to that station, HHR will take you back to the station that will work best for you.
- HHR will make claiming compensation for a delayed journey easy. However, HHR is not responsible for passenger compensation due to the late arrival of services due to force majeure.

4.9.3 HOW HHR COMPENSATE IF YOUR TRIP IS CANCELLED

HHR shall not cancel trips unless the security and safety of the railway service require so.

Provided that there are no causes of force majeure, cancellation of trip means that you cannot make your trip because HHR has cancelled this service or because the commercial service is delayed more than 4 hours at the arrival time.

If your train is delayed or cancelled, HHR will not give you compensation for any losses or extra costs other than those related to your ticket price (e.g. if you miss a connecting plane).

If you are catching a plane, please leave plenty of time to allow for any delays to your train journey. You can ask your airline how much time you will need to leave to check in.

In case of necessity, HHR could make a class downgrade before or during the trip. This situation is not considered as boarding rejection.

In this case, HHR informs the Passenger of the availability of alternative seats on lower class. This shall be dealt with as follows:

If the Passenger agrees to downgrade the reservation class, the Passenger must be compensated for the full price difference between the original class and the class on which the Passenger did actually travel, at the lowest price of the class on which the downgrade is made.

In addition, the Passenger shall receive a compensation equivalent to (25%) of the value of the original ticket.

HHR shall have the right to make a class upgrade to the passenger if needed. In this case it will be considered as an improvement of the travel conditions so no compensation will apply in this case.
